Networking Event: Migration Oxford, Quiz, and Drinks

October 20th, 5.30 – 7.30 PM

The Hub - Kellogg College, 60-62 Banbury Road, Oxford

We invite DPhils, ECRs, and senior scholars to join us for the first Migration Oxford's networking event of the year. This informal event will start with a welcome and overview about Migration Oxford and ways to get involved, after which guests will have a chance to mingle over some refreshments. Guests will then be placed in small teams for a quiz with questions about migration and Oxford! The winning team will be awarded a prize... Join us to find out what it is. This is a limited capacity event. For catering purposes, please register here only if you intend to attend.

Call for presenters and attendees: "Refugees & entrepreneurship"

November 8th, 5 – 7 PM

64 Banbury Road, Oxford

Deadline for abstract submission: October 22nd

This informal, networking interdisciplinary event fosters reflections on refugee entrepreneurship and connects researchers from across the University of Oxford with an interest on the topic. Confirmed speakers: Deema Refai (Associate Professor in Enterprise and Entrepreneurship, University of Leeds Business School) and Carlos Vargas-Silva (Professor in Migration Studies and COMPAS Director, University of Oxford). If you would like to give a 5-minute informal talk on your work-in-progress research and reflections on refugee entrepreneurship, please read the call for presenters here and send a short abstract by Saturday 22nd October 2022 to gilda.borriello@compas.ox.ac.uk and migration-mobility@torch.ox.ac.uk If you would like to participate as an attendee, please register here.

Book Launch: "Data Science for Migration and Mobility"

November 23rd, 4.30 – 6.30 PM

Seminar Room 1, Queen Elizabeth House, 3 Mansfield Road, Oxford

Join us for the launch of the book "Data Science for Migration and Mobility" published by the Oxford University Press' British Academy Proceedings Series, edited by Dr Emre Eren Korkmaz (University of Oxford), Prof Dr Albert Ali Salah (Utrecht University) and Dr Tuba Bircan (Brussels Free University). In the seminar, three editors (Dr Korkmaz, Dr Salah and Dr Bircan), Dr Godin and Dr Allen will present their thoughts. Then Professor Ruben Andersson and Professor Loren Landau will share their comments about the topic and book. There will be representatives from Oxford University Press and British Academy and a special discount will be offered. This is a limited capacity event. Please register here. For queries: migration-mobility@torch.ox.ac.uk
